FURORE INN RESORT—PRESS RELEASE 2004 www.furoreinn.it

furore inn resort + spa

...the complete Amalfi Coast experience in one exquisitely neat little package.

top image (from top): Guestrooms at Furore Inn provide a dazzling view of the sea; enjoy an espresso in the quiet ambiance of Caffè dell'Affresco.

middle image (from top): The spa offers a wide range of treatments for total rejuvenation; take a dip in the gorgeous pool that appears as part of the Mediterranean Sea; resting on the hill of Crevano away from the hustle of Amalfi Drive, the resort is a peaceful retreat for both mind and body.

Some parts of the world are so heartbreakingly beautiful that it's hard for the visitor to find a hotel to match the quality and splendour of the surroundings. The Amalfi Coast is one such area and the task is rendered doubly difficult by the fact that the spectacular terrain is so rugged and precipitous that hotels of any sort are notoriously hard to come by. All the more reason then guests should be grateful for the existence of the classy, super-swish, five-star Furore Inn Resort and Spa. Among the cognoscenti, it is the only place to stay on the Amalfi Coast.

Of course, such a lack of any real competition might lead to a culture of complacency—but not at the Furore Inn. Here, the pursuit of excellence is a never-ending goal, as the uncompromising and unstinting levels of service and attention to detail continually testify. The result is a resort that not only sets the standard by which other resorts in the region should be judged upon, but one which also offers the complete Amalfi Coast experience in one exquisitely neat little package.

Spread over seven terraces high on a hillside overlooking the charming town of the same name and the Mediterranean Sea itself, this wonderful boutique hotel could not be better positioned. Furthermore, its small size means that guests are ensured the undivided attention of the cheerful and friendly staff throughout their stay.

All 22 rooms and suites are light, bright and spacious, seamlessly blending stylish furnishings with the latest modern amenities to create a luxurious and comfortable environment of the highest standard. Although no two rooms are alike, they all have one notable quality in common—each offers one of the most romantic and visually stunning backdrops imaginable.

But it's not just the stunning vistas that have drawn people to the Amalfi Coast over the years. No visit to the region would be complete without an equally magnificent culinary experience, and in this respect the Furore Inn doesn't disappoint. There are two restaurants to choose from. The innovative Italian Touch marries Mediterranean and international flavours in elegant surroundings and has justly earned an impressive reputation as a gourmet restaurant of the highest order. The Fishing Vixen, on the other hand, offers traditional fare in a more casual environment, with two terraces on which diners can simultaneously savour both the brilliant view and cuisine. Locally sourced ingredients, in particular seafood, feature prominently and a wide array of local and international wines is available to accompany every course.

In addition, the hotel offers three spectacular outdoor swimming pools, an extensive health and beauty centre, open-air jacuzzi and tennis court. So all in all, it's not hard to see why this hotel is regularly rated as one of Italy's top ten boutique hotels.
